CHINA STATION.

NEW CHIEF NAMED.

JUTLAND FIGHT ADMIRAL.

London, March 31.

The King has approved the appointment of Vice Admiral Sir Arthur Leveson as Commander-in-Chief of the China Station in succession to Admiral Sir Alexander Duff.

[Vice-Admiral Sir Arthur, Cavendish Leveson, K.C.B., F.R.G.S., was lately in command of the Second Battle Squadron. Born in 1868 he was educated privately. Joining H.M.S. "Britannia" as a midshipman in 1883, he became a lieutenant four years later. Appointed commander in 1899 he became Captain in 1903, Rear Admiral in 1913 and Vice Admiral in 1919. He served in the European war and for his part in the Battle of Jutland was mentioned in despatches. His recreation is motorboating.]

[Admiral Sir Alexander Ludovic Duff, K.C.B., the present Commander-in-Chief of the China Station, was Director of the Mobilisation Division of the Admiralty War Staff from 1911 to 1914; Rear Admiral of the 4th Battle Squadron from 1914 to 1917; and Assistant Chief of the Naval Staff from 1917 to 1919. For his services in the Battle of Jutland he was mentioned in despatches and awarded the C.B. He was appointed Admiral in 1921.]

SIR JOHN EATON DEAD.

CANADIAN MERCHANT PRINCE.

Toronto, March 31.

The death has occurred here of the merchant prince Sir John Eaton.

[Sir John Craig Eaton, President of the T. Eaton Co., Ltd., Toronto and Winnipeg, was born in the former city in 1876. Educated at different public schools he became a director of the Dominion Bank, director of the Canadian Pacific Railway, honorary director of the Canadian National Exhibition, member of the Senate of Victoria College, honorary governor of the Toronto General Hospital, and member of the board of governors of the Toronto University.]

ST. JOHN'S CATHEDRAL.

WAR MEMORIAL FUND DEFICIT.

At a special service held on November 13, 1918, to celebrate the signing of the Armistice, a collection was taken to defray the cost of erecting a Memorial in the Cathedral or in the compound to the Hongkong men who fell in the War, says St. John's Cathedral Church Notes. The collection amounted to $1,768 and on a subsequent occasion when a memorial service for the fallen was held on December 28, in the same year, a collection of $357 was given to the same object. The cross and bronze sword row in the compound were erected out of this money and a balance of about $600 remained. The Church Body decided to have the names of the fallen on a bronze tablet, and as it was found that so large and important a bronze tablet could not be made locally it was decided to have it made in England. The tablet was ordered by the Church Body from Messrs. William Morris and Co. of Westminster, and the details were left to the Senior Chaplain to settle when he was on leave and could see the makers. It appeared that the tablet would cost rather more than had been expected, but the Senior Chaplain felt sure that in a matter of a memorial to the Hongkong men who died in the war there would be no difficulty in raising a little more money for placing their names on record for all time. He therefore gave the order for the completion of the tablet. It has now arrived in the Colony and will shortly be in position in the porch. Meanwhile the fall in the dollar has made the $600 which was in hand for the purpose worth little more than half what it was a year ago when the Senior Chaplain left for home. The result is that there is a deficit of $1,600. It is felt that this ought not to come out of the ordinary Cathedral funds and that there are many who would like to contribute who do not as a rule attend the Cathedral, as the names of all the Hongkong men, as far as they could be ascertained, without distinction of nation or creed, are inscribed on the tablet. Donations may be sent for this purpose to the Hon. Treasurer, Mr. George Hagg, International Bank, and should be marked for the War Memorial.

SONG-CENSORSHIP FOR PARIS.

The chaussonniers of Montmartre and the Latin Quarter are in a state of excitement just now owing to the action of the police in inviting them to put some restraint on their music. Always daring in laying personalities and political events under contribution, they had lately produced songs which were considered offensive to the Allies of France. There were complaints to the Prefect of Police, who told off men to visit the cabarets and see what was going on. As a result of their reports it has been decided that in future they shall intimate to their chief the songs which in their opinion are likely to wound the susceptibilities of foreigners, who cannot be expected to laugh with Frenchmen when their countries and their statesmen are held up to ridicule and something worse. These police agents will, therefore, assume the role of song-censors. The men who write and sing their own songs do not like this interference, and one of them has promptly invited it to account by writing a song telling of how when four police agents were taking notes in a cabaret, a poet office was burgled. Through the chaussonniers' protest to the angry over the action of the police, they ought in reality to be flattered because of the publicity they have obtained. They are singing to bigger audiences than ever.

CHURCH NOTES.

Before Christ came to earth, only for a brief time of one day in each year was the High Priest allowed to enter into the Holy of Holies to offer sacrifices. Then he foreshadowed the time when the Lamb of God should offer Himself and His Blood for the Atonement of the sins of the World.
In the Epistle, St. Paul tells us that we only serve God through grace of that Sacrifice; unless we realise our unworthiness and plead its merits our efforts are in vain.

Every time we approach God in the Holy Communion it must be with thankful remembrance of that Atonement.

"We here present, we here spread forth to Thee
That only Offering, perfect in Thine eyes,
The one, true, pure immortal Sacrifice."

"He that is of God, heareth God's words." With this pregnant sentence Jesus rebukes the Jews and those of us who will not listen to Him or who willfully pervert His meaning.
Having read the Gospel, we are left in no doubt about what we must believe in Christ's sinlessness, in the Divinity of His nature; then in His claim to be the Conqueror of Death and lastly in His claim to be Eternal and, if eternal, then God our Creator.
This claim so angered the Jews that they took up stones to cast at Him, but Jesus hid Himself, for the time was not yet come when He, the Master over death, should voluntarily give Himself up to suffer the death of the Cross.

St. Richard's Day falls on April 3.
He came of a wealthy family, having estates in Worcestershire, but when his elder brother offered him a share in the succession he refused and studied diligently in Oxford and Paris.
Later on he became Chancellor of the University of Oxford and a great friendship sprang up between him and St. Edmund, Archbishop of Canterbury. After the death of this dear friend in exile Richard mourned the secular life and was ordained a priest. While preaching a Crusade against the Saracens in the South of England, he felt that his mission on earth was completed and his end was near. At the dedication of a Church in honour of St. Edmund, he preached a sermon on Mid Lent Sunday and begged for the prayers of the congregation. The next day while singing the Office he suddenly became ill, his strength quickly failed him, and the last rites of the Church were performed. Often during his illness he would embrace the Crucifix murmuring, "I thank Thee, oh, My Lord Jesus for all the benefits which Thou hast conferred upon me, and for the suffering and the shame which Thou didst bear and which exceed those to cry out, Is there any sorrow like unto My sorrow?"

Those who prepared his body for burial found on it the marks of severe discipline and mortification. His life was written by his confessor Radulphus.
A quaint story is told of St. Langdon, whose day falls on April 4.
One day, while he was a tiny baby lying in his cradle, a swarm of bees circled round him, and though many settled on his lips he was not stung or harmed at all—this was said to be a sign of his future eloquence. He did become a brilliant advocate and was Governor of Milan until he was thirty-four years of age when he was ordained Bishop. He wrote many devotional books and fought steadily against the Arian and Apollinarian heresies, and was loved for his great goodness and devotion to the poor.

He died just before midnight on Holy Saturday.

In art he is usually depicted in pontifical robes with a bee hovering near him.

The annual meeting of the Church
Missionary Association was held last Tuesday afternoon in the Cathedral Hall.

A meeting of the Standing Committee of the Diocesan Conference was held on Tuesday at the Cathedral Hall when matters submitted by the Conference were discussed at length and resolutions made accordingly.

The question of Diocesan Synods seems to be coming to the front in discussions everywhere, and clergy are all trying to find out the purpose, power and standing of such an assembly. This question deeply affects Churchmen here for the Chinese Church has its Synod but we have not, unless a Diocesan Conference can be called such in any sense of the word. The Bishop of Oxford says
"the value of the Diocesan Synod lies in this that it would tend to increase confidence between Bishop and clergy and to add a great weight of moral authority to any discussions promulgated by the Bishop if they have been considered and approved by the Synod." The Diocesan Synod can be traced in its nature and origin to the Acts of the Apostles where we read that St. James summoned his Synod, and early instances of this apostolic example are to be found in the three councils held at Llandaff in the latter part of the sixth century.

There are three other kinds of Synods: the General, the national and the provincial, the names implying their nature, but the holding of these does not affect the holding of the Diocesan Synods which should include all the clergy of a Diocese, and sometimes some laymen, who, however have no voting power. Almost any question may be discussed at a Synod, but no decisions should ever be made on any questions relating to sacraments. It would seem that it has been usual to call a Synod once a year, but there are many cases of two being held in one year.

It is not often that one hears of sacrilege in Churches, nowadays but a very painful case has come to notice from Middleborough. St. Alban's Church was entered at night, and a crucifix was badly damaged together with the sanctuary lamps of the Lady Chapel, the glass and oil being thrown all over the Church.

It is a healthy sign that our Cathedrals are giving up the distasteful custom of charging a fee to visitors who come sightseeing. Ely has just started being free and open.
Chester, which was thrown open more than a year ago, finds that seven times the amount which was levied in fees is now found in the voluntary collecting boxes.

The Vicar of a South London Church was asked to preach on the subject of strong drink. After announcing that such a request had been made to him, he continued,
"There are only two drinks
mentioned in the Book of Psalms.
One is wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and the other water with which the wild asses quench their thirst." Then he added, "You can take your choice of either."

The Bishop of Birmingham, addressing his diocese, says:—"Few people have put before us what they mean by reunion. There are people who have a sort of sloppy feeling that if there are occasional exchanges of pulpits or combined services, or some sort of creed which everybody could accept, and which shall mean only part of that which is dear to faithful members of the Church, that then there is union.
I would prefer a oneness of heart with diversity of effort.
Either we attach importance to that which has been our faith for centuries or we are not real believers at all. If any one conscientiously changes his or her Church we must respect him, and realizing, as we must, that environment, upbringing, and heredity all have their part in forming our faith, surely we can go each on our own road, determinedly giving ourselves to that which we hold dear, and yet respecting those who differ from us. If, as the years go on, it becomes easier for us to fit in our creed with that of others, well and good; but he union which seems to me of value is that by which all expressions of Christianity stand together for great moral causes rather than that we should pretend, however devoutly, that either in creed or ceremonial our individualities are all in harmony."

NOTICE.

VISIT OF H.R.H. THE PRINCE OF WALES—ILLUMINATIONS LANTERNS & CANDLES.

The Lanterns and candles ordered by Mr. C. Montague Ede have arrived and Messrs. Lane, Crawford, Ltd., have kindly undertaken to arrange for the distribution of same. The premises recently occupied by Messrs. William Powell, Ltd. in Wiseman's Building will be used as the depot for the issue of these lanterns and candles. Purchasers who have already placed orders are requested to send to this depot for their supplies. Further orders may be sent direct to Messrs. Lane, Crawford, Ltd. The depot will be opened on March 28 and remain open until April 5. Hours 9.30 to 12.30 and 2 to 5.
Hongkong, March 27, 1922.

NOTICE TO OFFICERS AND ENGINEERS OF THE BRITISH MERCANTILE MARINE.

IN accordance with the expressed wish of H.R.H. the Prince of Wales to meet all ex-service men, among whom he mentioned officers of the Mercantile Marine, His Excellency the Governor most kindly extends to all certificated members of that Service in ships using or passing through the Port an invitation to be present in the grounds of Government House at 2.30 p.m. on the afternoon of April 6th, when His Royal Highness looks forward to meeting them. In announcements of the above already issued, the final date of application for tickets of admission is stated to be March 25th. It has however been realized that if this date is strictly observed, the majority of officers likely to be in port on April 6th will be prevented from attending. Arrangements have therefore been made that officers should apply as soon as possible for cards of admission to the Rev. G.T. Waldegrave, Seamen's Institute, Praya East; (stating rank, ship, name of firm, and any war-service and decorations), the final date of application being kept as late as possible in order to obviate in some measure the difficulty above stated.

IRISH PEACE?

LONDON, March 31st.
In the House of Commons whilst debating on the House of Lords amendments to the Irish Treaty Bill, Mr. Churchill paid a tribute to the courage and goodwill of Sir James Craig and his colleagues as a most critical juncture. He said that Ulster had lent a helping hand to the Irish Free State. These factors would cause peace in Ireland and the whole of the Empire, made the estimate. It is hoped that with the co-operation of the North and South, measures would be taken to restore order in Belfast. If successful this would enormously strengthen Irish sentiment in favour of the Treaty. Our obligations and pledges towards Ulster were, therefore, reinforced.
Referring to the House of Lords amendments, he said the Government was unable to consent to the slightest alteration in the Treaty, because alteration would be used by enemies to confuse the issue and to mislead public opinion. He made the explanation that he agreed to the amendment regarding the time given to Ulster to exercise the option of joining the Free State. He deprecated any undue elation, saying that there was a long period of anxiety and uncertainty ahead. He felt confident of the good faith and goodwill of the Irish signatories, but less confident of the power to carry out their wishes against deadly foes.

CHINESE BRIGANDS.

KWONG, March 31st.
Further details are to hand as to the collision between Chinese brigands and a British punitive force, reported yesterday. About 500 brigands, led by Prince Wunthu, a member of the Burmese ex-Royal House, attacked and burned the house of the American Baptist missionary at Namkhar. They also looted the village of Maw and murdered the villagers. Wunthu proclaimed himself King of Bratan and said he had come to annex Burmah from the British. The rebels were dispersed after fierce fighting and Wunthu was captured. Three military police were killed.

AMERICAN COAL STRIKE.

WASHINGTON, March 31st.
The House of Representatives Labour Committee has requested President Harding to call a meeting of owners and miners in order to consider the pros and cons of the coal strike.

HOUSE OF LORDS.

LONDON, March 31st.
After a statement by Lord Birkenhead on the grave constitutional question involved, the Lords referred back to the Committee of Privileges a recommendation in favour of admission of peers to the House of Lords.

My Debt of Gratitude.

'Ulcers are the Size of Man's Hand.'

Our Portrait is of Mr. C. M. THOMPSON, of a Milling Grove, Edward Road, Island Health, Birmingham, England, who writes:—
"In July last I happened to get a scratch on my leg. It was so slight I took no notice of it till a fortnight elapsed, when I found it could not be cured. It gradually grew worse, when it turned septic: from this point I got from bad to worse till at length the sore turned into an ulcer. I had at that particular time tried the use of a most famous ointment, but it did not do me any good. I read about your Clarke's Blood Mixture and decided to take it. It was then in the month of October, and after the second bottle I found relief. I continued until the seventh bottle when I found myself completely cured of the trouble. You can make use of this statement and I will be only too pleased to answer any enquiries because it is so touching that you should have been cured. I have my debt of gratitude."

Sufferers from Red Legs, Abscesses, Ulcers, Ganglions, Swellings, Piles, Eczema, Boils, Fimples, Eruptions, Cuts and Bruises should try this blood purifier. It can be given temporarily to be used as a remedy and later on the blood must be thoroughly cleansed of the impurities. The true cause of such troubles, Clarke's Blood Mixture quickly attacks, overcomes, and cures the impurities that is why so many remarkable recoveries have been effected. Pleasant to take and free from any dangerous ingredients. Of all Chemists and Stores.

SINGAPORE VISIT.

[China Mail Special.]

SINGAPORE, March 31.
The Prince landed in Singapore at ten o'clock to-day amidst manifestations of unbounded loyalty from all communities who vied with each other in the lavishness of their decorations. Thousands lined the route.
The Prince, who replied to an address of welcome, unveiled the war memorial. He saw thousands of assembled children.
Finally he met the rulers of the unfederated states at Government House.
In the afternoon he opened the Malaya Borneo exhibition which is being held on a very large scale. The weather is beautiful and the city is looking its finest.

HIMROD'S

Asthma
Cure

GIVES INSTANT RELIEF.

THE famous Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is world wide. It is good for the deep seated cough of the adult or the croup and whooping cough of the children. The same bottle serves the whole family. For sale by all Chemists and Druggists.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The Magistrates' Department gets a holiday the first day of the Prince's visit. It works the second day as usual.

Found unconscious in Praya East with an injured leg, a Chinese was yesterday taken to the Government Civil Hospital.

It is announced that Mr. A. R. Lowe is appointed Interim Special Manager of the Banque Industrielle de Chine during Mr. E. A. M. Williams' absence from the Colony.

On behalf of the King the Governor has given his assent to the ordinance passed by the Legislative Council amending the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank Ordinance (1866).

When the s.s. "Van Cloon" arrived in harbour yesterday, the body of a Chinese steamer passenger who died suddenly a few hours from port was removed to the Kowloon mortuary.

Command Orders state that Freemasons of the Garrison who are attending the Masonic reception to H. R. H. the Prince of Wales in the Pavilion on April 7, have permission to wear Masonic regalia.

Command Orders state that during the visit of H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, helmets and khaki drill will take the place of caps and khaki serge clothing. Summer mess dress will not be worn before April 8.

Mr. Phoon Sock Wah, Government Civil Hospital, who qualified as a bachelor of medicine and a bachelor of surgery of the Hongkong University in December last year, has been authorised to practise medicine here.

The Coronet Theatre's great drama "I am Guilty," which was rewarded with crowded houses last night, will be shown again this evening. In response to numerous requests Mary Pickford's comedy masterpiece, "The Hunchback," will be screened to-morrow evening.

The King has not been advised to exercise his power of disallowance with respect to the ordinance modifying certain provisions of the Treaty of Peace (Hungary) Order, 1921, for the purpose of adapting the provisions of the order to the circumstances of the Colony of Hongkong.

In order to have the area properly laid out for burying Chinese dead, six months hence the Governor intends to make an order directing the removal of all graves in the portions of sections A, B and C in Mount Caroline Cemetery shown in a plan at the Sanitary Department Office.

Forthcoming Crown land auctions include the sale of about 34,375 sq. ft. at Pokfulam for an upset price of $4,125; about 25,000 sq. ft. at Repulse Bay for an upset price of $1,905, and about 6,000 sq. ft. on the New Road from Wanchai Gap to Magazine Gap for an upset price of $720.

St. John's Cathedral Church Notes state: We much regret to announce the continued illness of the Cathedral organist, Mr. Denman Fuller, who is still in the Peak Hospital but is making progress towards recovery. Owing to his illness it has been found necessary to abandon the usual oratorio on Good Friday night.

St. John's Cathedral Church Notes mention that Dr. Severn has undertaken to collect the money needed to install fans in the Cathedral instead of the punkahs which have been used hitherto in the hot weather. "When the electric current used to be cut off on Sunday mornings it seemed better to rely on the old-fashioned punkahs, but now that a continuous supply is given by the Electric Company it has been thought that the fans will be more reliable and less in the way than the punkahs."

If the domestics of Hongkong had been registered there would be some telling comments on their registration cards; "Left without notice: I had to boil my own porridge," "Joined the strikers and took away my best silver spoons," "A leading Bolshevik, works 20 minutes a day and writes patriotic poems when he should be serving dinner," and so on, says the N. O. D. Mail. As for the absence of news, the censorship no doubt accounts for it. Hongkong people desirous to know what was going on had to wait till they got the Peking and Shanghai newspapers, when they learnt the worst.

SERVES THE WHOLE FAMILY.

THE fame of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is world wide. It is good for the deep seated cough of the adult or the croup and whooping cough of the children. The same bottle serves the whole family. For sale by all Chemists and Druggists.

PRINCE'S VISIT.

SPECIAL HARBOUR REGULATIONS.

In connection with the visit of the Prince of Wales to the Colony next week, it is announced that on Thursday Blake Pier will be closed to all public traffic from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. and again from 8 p.m. until midnight. On Friday from 8 p.m. until the Prince has left to go on board H.M.S. "Renown."

The steam tender "Stanley" taking the Prince and party through the harbour to view the illumination will leave Blake Pier at 9.30 p.m. on the Thursday and will proceed eastward through man-of-war anchorage then round Admiralty buoy No. 1 and thence westward through the central fairway and the fairway buoys and thence back to Black Pier using the Central fairway. All launches and ferries are warned to give the "Stanley" a wide berth when going through the harbour at this time. The "Stanley" will carry besides the usual steaming lights 3 red vertical lights at the main.

TO SECRETARIES OF CLUBS AND OTHER INSTITUTIONS.

ALL preliminary notices of forthcoming meetings, lectures and entertainments, sent for insertion in the news columns of the China Mail, are charged for at the rate of $1 each, (as announced in May and June of last year) providing that they do not occupy more than four lines. In future if this space is exceeded they will be placed in the advertising columns at the prevailing rates.

A PARENT'S DUTY.

YOUR boy is always getting scratched or cut or bruised. Because these wounds have healed all right is not that they always will. Get a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and see that every injury is cared for immediately. You can get nothing better and his skin is no dangerous disease to risk. For sale by all Chemists and Druggists.

MURDER CHARGE.

BRICKLAYER'S SUPPOSED FIGHT.

Yesterday afternoon Acting Sub-Inspector Fallon, of No. 7, Police Station, found the dead body of a Chinese in Hutton Road, West Point, with a large wound on the right side of the head fracturing the skull. It was later learned that the man was a bricklayer living in Second Street, and it was alleged, he was murdered in the course of a fight with another mason who was said to have absconded. The police have the alleged murderer's name and description.

BLOWS AT A BALL.

COUNT AND MEMBER OF A PRINCELY FAMILY.

An uproarious incident occurred at a charity ball between Don Marino Torlonia, of the prominent princely family, who married Miss Elsie Moore of New York, and Count Lovatelli, whose wife was formerly a Miss Keen, an Argentine woman. The ball was organised by the British and American Ambassadors on behalf of an Anglo-American nursing home.

The quarrel is said to have concerned the payment of a sculpture ordered by Donna Elsie Torlonia from Count Lovatelli, who is a sculptor. Don Marino is said to have struck Count Lovatelli, who retaliated. The incident was promptly ended by their respective friends, but it is believed that a duel will follow.

BOXING.

NOVICES TOURNEY.

LAST NIGHT'S BOUTS.

Some better fights were witnessed last night when the heats in the novices' tournament of the Hongkong Boxing Association were continued, the men being on the whole better matched. Some good men are meeting to-night, and "peppy" fights are assured. Of course, the attraction of the evening will be the middle and feather weight contests for the Championship of the Colony. Teddy Neal, of Hongkong, and A. B. Chadwick, of H.M.S. "Marazion," are meeting in the lighter class. They are both too well known to require introduction to local boxing fans. A good fight is expected. In the heavier class the opponents will be C.P.O. Callaghan, of H.M.S. "Ambrose," and A. B. Duncan, of H.M.S. "Magnolia." Callaghan was the Middleweight Champion of the Nore Command from 1916 to 1917 and runner-up in the same competition in 1917-18. Previously he had won over 40 bouts, including decisions over Pte. Mason, R.M.L.I., until recently the holder of the Middleweight Championship of the Colony; Pte. Sievers, Welterweight Champion of the Army, and L. C. Cook, Welterweight Champion of the Royal Engineers. Duncan is also a tried man. He won the Middleweight Championship of the Army and Navy, Eastern Command, by knocking out Sgt. Ball, West Kent in the second round of a 6-round bout. His other victories were—k.o. A.B. Turner in the 1st round in the semi-finals for the Championship of the Nore Command, 1921, and a decision over A.B. Laurie in the same competition.

In connection with the units caps offered in the novices' tourney the H.K.B.A. is awarding one point for each win in the preliminaries and three points in the finals. The King's who had a larger number of entries than any other unit, had 50 far.

The following is the order in which the various units stand at the end of the preliminaries:—King's, 34 points; "Hawkins," 11; Light Cruisers, 5; Rest of Garrison, 4; Police, 2; "Tamar," 1; Submarines and Civilians 0.

N.B. Walk-overs and byes don't count.

RESULTS.

Following are the results:—

FLYWEIGHT.

PRELIMINARIES.

L. C. Smith (King's) beat Pte. Hughes (King's) on points in a fast mill. The first round was fairly even, but in the second Hughes was forced to cover up. Smith indulged in some hard hitting in the third round but Hughes managed to avoid disaster.

Pte. Smith (King's) beat A. Rodriguez (Hongkong) on points in a fine clean bout. Although Rodriguez was the aggressor throughout and gave his opponent no end of trouble. He covered beautifully when pressed and scored regularly with well directed blows to the face. Smith's reach, of course, stood him in good stead, but nevertheless there were many who were surprised when he was declared the victor.

BANTAMWEIGHT.

SEMI-FINALS.

Pte. Johnson (King's) beat J. V. Baldwin ("Tamar") on points in a hard-hitting bout. Baldwin wasted a lot of his strength punching Johnson's gloves, and in the third round was chased all over the ring. However, he managed to keep out of danger.

Sgt. L. King ("Hawkins") beat Pte. Redaway (King's) in a close, contested mill. King played for the jaw while Redaway centred his attention on his opponent's wind. However, neither could hit hard enough to go; the k.o. they were looking for. King won by a shade.

FEATHERWEIGHT.

SEMI-FINALS.

L. C. Crotty (King's) stopped Pte. Hughes (King's) in the first round. He rushed his man from the opening gong and dropped him twice with heavy body blows. Hughes kept away after this, but towards the end of the round he was again felled. Crotty this time hitting rather low. Although he was hurt, Hughes very pluckily got up. He was saved by the gong, but retired during the interval between the 1st and 2nd rounds.

Pte. Cutting (King's) beat Pte. McCann (King's) on points in a fast affair. They were very even in the first round. McCann opened the second with some well directed rights to the jaw but could not get his man out. Cutting held his own, and scoring freely in the last round, won comfortably.

LIGHTWEIGHT "A."

3RD ROUND.

Pte. Flynn (King's) beat A.B. Tully (Light Cruisers) in a whirlwind bout. Although the shorter man, he forced the pace throughout and landed some wicked whacks which Tully felt. He played simultaneously for the face and wind in the second and had Tully down for 8. The latter weathered the storm however, and towards the close landed a straight jab which jerked Flynn's head back. Generally, however, his blows lacked sting. Tully came in for some bitter punishment to the head and wind in the third round, and was a spent man at the close.

Pte. McGuinness (King's) beat Pte. Penkerman (King's) on points. The former scored to the wind in the first round which he took easily. Penkerman opened the second round with hefty punishment to the face but tired towards the end and was badly knocked about. The last round was McGuinness' by a big margin.

Pte. Kelly (King's) k.o. Pte. Dennis (King's) in the first round. The exchanges were wild at the opening and both men scored a fall. Then Kelly connected a terrific right to the jaw and Dennis took the full count.

Bye.—Pte. McSally (King's).

4TH ROUND.

Pte. Flynn (King's) beat Pte. McGuinness (King's) on points in a hurricane bout. The honours were even in the first round. McGuinness fought wildly in the second and Flynn was content to allow him to wear himself down. Flynn punished his man severely with a lightning attack in the third round and won in fine style.

Pte. Kelly (King's) beat Pte. McSally (King's) by a shade in a very fast bout which was very even excepting that McSally missed his blows badly in the second round.

SEMI-FINAL.

Pte. Flynn (King's) beat Pte. Kelly (King's) on points in this tiring bout. Flynn again employed his boring tactics to advantage, and gradually wore his man down.

LIGHTWEIGHT "B."

3RD ROUND.

L. S. Wrigley ("Hawkins") easily defeated Pte. Manning (King's) in his bout. Both men were cautious in the first round, and little damage was done. Wrigley scored well and was good at retreating when pressed. He cornered Manning twice but the latter covered up effectively. Wrigley got the measure of his man in the next two rounds and took both by big margins.

Sgt. Gough (Police) k.o. Pte. Sanderson (King's) in the second round. Sanderson kept his man low in the first round, but Gough carried on and sent his man down for a count of 5. The gong saved Sanderson. He was knocked down for 1 in the second round, and then Gough tilted his jaw with the left and put over the sleeping dope with a vicious right uppercut.

Pte. Martin (King's) stopped Pte. Scott (King's) in the third round. Both hit lightly in the first round.

Martin was aggressive in the second and landed some hefty blows. He hit Scott on the wind in the third and then landed on the jaw. Scott had had enough and put out his right hand in token of surrender.

O. S. Flynn (Light Cruisers) beat L. S. Jenkins ("Hawkins") on points.

Flynn, who is quite a boy, looked more like a feather than a lightweight, but he hustled his opponent all the way through. No damage was caused in the first round, but he scored prettily in the second and third. Although he was felled by Jenkins in the third, Flynn was promptly on his feet and gave it to his man well and truly.

4TH ROUND.

O. S. Flynn (Light Cruisers) beat Pte. Martin (King's) in the same aggressive manner as in the last bout, and was given a fine ovation for his performance. Martin retired in the third round.

Bye.—L. S. Wrigley ("Hawkins"). Scratched.—Sgt. Gough (Police).

SEMI-FINAL.

L. S. Wrigley ("Hawkins") beat O. S. Flynn (Light Cruisers). Flynn met an equally fast and a stronger man in this bout, and was forced to stop in the second round, after putting up a creditable show in the first.

WELTERWEIGHTS.

3RD ROUND.

Gnr. Barker (R.G.A.) stopped St. Anderson (Light Cruisers) in this one-sided bout. It was a grilling bout for Anderson. Barker was early aggressive in the first round and soon had his man in difficulties. Anderson took counts of 1, 1, 3, 8, 5 and 4, and although very groggy refused to give in. He had to be helped to his stool at the gong. He again took counts of 7, 8 and 3 in the second but very gamely came up for more punishment each time. In the third Barker had him down for 1, 6, 7, 8 and 7, but although obviously suffering, he still refused to take the full count. His seconds had to throw in the towel to save him from further punishment. He was wildly cheered when leaving the ring.

Pte. Logan (King's) k.o. Gnr. Henwood (R.G.A.) in the second round. Henwood was on the run throughout the first round and was put out with the first really hard punch of the bout in the second.

L. C. Orr (King's) k.o. Pte. Martin (King's) in the second round. The first round was very evenly contested and no damage was caused on either side. Orr was all out in the second and finished his man early.

Bye.—A. B. Dennis ("Hawkins").

4TH ROUND.

Gnr. Barker (R.G.A.) stopped Pte. Logan (King's) who was forced to retire in the first round after receiving some hefty punishment.

L. C. Orr (King's) stopped A. B. Dennis ("Hawkins") who retired in the second round after putting up a stiff fight in the first.

MIDDLEWEIGHT.

2ND ROUND.

Gnr. Moxworthy (R.G.A.) stopped A. B. Newman (Submarines) who gave up in the third round. The first round was very even, but Moxworthy was aggressive in the next two, and punching repeatedly to the jaw, wore his man down.

L. S. O'Hara (Submarines) k.o. Pte. Drennan (King's) in the first round after sending him down for two counts of 8. It was a hot affair while it lasted, with Drennan hitting very wildly.

Bye.—Pte. Gardner (King's) and Pte. Thomas, R.M.L.I. (Light Cruisers).

SEMI-FINALS.

Pte. Thomas, R.M.L.I. (Light Cruisers) k.o. Pte. Gardner (King's) in the first round of a whirlwind bout.

L. S. O'Hara (Submarines) k.o. Gnr. Moxworthy (R.G.A.) in the first round. O'Hara rushed his man to the ropes at the opening gong and punched him heavily in the mid-sections. He was cautioned twice by the referee for hitting low and then put his man out with a questionable punch. Moxworthy was unconscious for five minutes and had to be attended by Dr. Harston.

HEAVYWEIGHT.

PRELIMINARIES.

A. B. Grace ("Hawkins") k.o. A. B. Barnes (Schmarines) in the first round after sending him down for counts of 5 and 3. A heavy punch over the heart finished his man.

Bye.—Corpl. Tickard, R. M. L. I. ("Hawkins"). Scratched.—Sgt. Hallam (Police) and L. B. Rose, (R.G.A.). Rose fought in the welterweight class and was therefore disqualified in this class.

LABOUR UNREST.

MANY DEMANDS MADE.

Hongkong, it seems, is not yet out of the wood of industrial unrest. Since the seamen's strike was settled demands for increased wages have been sent along by the seafarers, tally clerks, launchmen and native lightermen; This time the employers have taken prompt action to deal with the problem. The committee of the Hongkong General Chamber of Commerce discussed it yesterday afternoon with representatives of the firms directly concerned and ultimately the Hon. Mr. E. V. D. Parr, Mr. G. M. Dodwell, Mr. G. M. Young and Mr. H. P. White were authorised to meet representatives of all demands, in conference with the Hon. Mr. E. R. Halliday (Secretary for Chinese Affairs), Commander C. W. Beckwith, R. N. (Harbour Master) and representatives of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce.

The stevedoring guilds seek an increase of 50 per cent and the others are all asking for fairly substantial increases. The employees of the Hongkong Tramway Coy are becoming restive, too. Their demands are said to include: an eight-hour day, double pay for overtime and for holidays and a progressive scale of increases based on length of service.

SMOKES DEATH KNELL.

TOAST MADE OVER CHIMNEY OF NEW DESTROYER.

A striking demonstration of the efficiency of a new smoke destroyer and coal saver was given before representatives of London municipal boroughs in the offices of Mr. J. Keele, in Mark-lane, E.C., recently.

On a bench was a steam-raising plant and a dust destructor. Coal, oil rags and other rubbish were burnt, and dense volumes of smoke poured into the smoke destroyer, which was fixed on the same bench.

The smoke was totally consumed in the destroyer, and not the slightest smoke or smell passed out of the destroyer's chimney. Visitors tested this by making toast at the top of the chimney and eating it.

The destroyer is an invention by Mr. J. W. Meek, a Scottish engineer. "Not only will it do away with smoke," he said, "but it will save money, as smoke is a valuable fuel. Tests made with the apparatus show a saving in fuel of over 20 per cent."

There is a London borough which collects 800 tons of refuse a week and has to dump half of it at the Nore, since to burn it all would create too much smoke and smell. I claim that my invention will ensure 100 per cent efficiency to dust destroyers.

PRAYA MURDER TRIAL.

The following correspondence has been forwarded for publication:—The Honourable

The ATTORNEY-GENERAL,

March 25, 1932.

Sir,—My attention has been called to the remarks made by you in the course of your address to the Jury on behalf of the Crown in the Praya Murder case, viz. that the evidence called on behalf of the prisoner was fabricated and amounted to a conspiracy on the part of those witnesses to defeat the ends of justice. This I have been told, was in the opinion of certain of those who heard it a direct imputation against me and against my office as the solicitor having the conduct of the defence. I may say that I did not like it as much, but I should like to be informed by you that my view is correct.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant, (sd.) GEO. K. HALL BRUTON

March 27, 1932.

Sir,—I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 25 March. I had no intention whatever of making any imputation against you or your office, and I would have said so in Court if you had asked me to do so.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant, (sd.) J. H. KEMP,

Attorney-General, G. K. HALL BRUTON, Esq.

LUGARD HALL.

FIFTH ANNUAL DINNER.

The fifth annual dinner of Lugard Hall was held at the Hostel Common Room on Thursday at 8 p.m. The room was tastefully decorated for the occasion, and the beautiful lanterns added to the warmth of the function. The portrait of Sir Frederick Lugard, hung at the head of the hall, was flanked by the Union Jack and the Chinese Republican Flag. The various trophies won by the Hostel were displayed on the tables.

Amongst those present were the Vice-Chancellor (Sir William Brunyate), the Hon. Dr. Cland Severn, Sir Robert Ho Tung, Rev. Dr. T. W. Pearce, Dr. N. Teasdale Mackintosh and the Warden and Representative students of the other Hostels. The toast of "The King" and "The President of China" were proposed by the Warden (Mr. M. H. Roffey).

The Rev. Dr. Pearce then proposed the toast of the University, to which Sir William replied. Sir William assured the students of his satisfaction at the cheerful way in which they worked together during the strike. He congratulated the members of the Hostel upon their achievements in the field, and added that they were by no means handicapped in their studies as they had four out of the six King Edward VII. scholars with them and also two of the five President's scholars.

At the conclusion of the Vice-Chancellor's speech there followed a musical interlude in which Mr. V. F. Vicoja rendered a couple of violin solos, with Mr. Y. C. Teh at the piano. Dr. Teasdale Mackintosh then proposed the toast of the Hostel and expressed his thanks for having been entrusted with this duty for the third year in succession. He mentioned that the name of Lugard Hall was by no means unknown in Shanghai. He said he took a great interest in basketball and said he was glad to hear that Lugard Hall was about to win the Inter-Hostel Basketball Cup. He reminded the members of the Hostel that he had just received from England a parcel which contained two silver cups sent by the late Dr. Jordan.

Mr. M. H. Roffey (Warden of the Hall) replied that he was pleased at seeing such a large gathering. He emphasised the fact that work and play should run side by side, and expressed the hope that every Lugardite will do his bit in the coming sports. In conclusion he reassured the Vice-Chancellor that "Lugard Hall would not let him down."

Mr. E. H. Lim, the representative student of the Hostel, then proposed the health of the guests.

Sir Robert Ho Tung, in acknowledgment, said he was told that the Lugard Hall was the "Star" hostel of the University and that he had no reason to doubt the statement. He congratulated the students upon their success in work and in sports, and he wished them success in their future careers.

BRINGING UP FATHER.

CHILDREN'S CORNER.

THAT ROGUE NOBODY.

"Wherever is my thimble?" cried Dora, hunting about in every pocket of her work-bag. "I am sure that I put it here yesterday and now it had gone."

"I expect that Rogue Nobody has taken it," put in Grandmother, who was sitting by the fire knitting busily. "Why who is that, Grannie?" asked Dora as she stopped her search and came and sat down on a footstool by her grandmother's knee. "Do tell me about him and why you think that he has taken my thimble?"

"Well it is like this," went on her grandmother, smiling down at Dora. "Whenever people can't find anything it is said that the Rogue Nobody has taken it and I have made up a tale about him."

"Oh do tell me please," Dora begged and her grandmother began.

"One day there was great excitement in Fairyland. A tiny baby fairy had been dropped from the sky in a basket. No one knew where he came from or anything about him. He was christened 'Nobody' and the Queen herself said that she would bring him up. He was a very self-willed baby fairy and as the Queen had no children she spoiled him and he grew up to be rather bad-tempered and was exceedingly angry if he could not have everything that he wanted. The King was really rather tired of his tantrums and when he heard Nobody boasting to some of the fairies that he would one day become king and then all the fairies should have everything that they wanted he called out in a loud voice, 'No you are only Nobody and you are a rogue too and you shall leave my kingdom to-day.'"

At once the King ordered four of his servants to seize Nobody and carry him to the borders of Fairyland and leave him, with enough food and drink to last him for some time in The World Beyond. This was done and it was no use for the rogue to make any fuss for one person was powerless against four.

At first he thought that life in The World Beyond was rather interesting, but that was as long as his supply of food and drink lasted and he had time to explore the place.

But when his store was finished he did not know what to do until as he was wandering around he came across a small gold brooch that somebody had dropped in a garden. This gave him an idea. He knew that the elves and pixies were very fond of all bright things and he also knew where some of them lived in a wood not far away. So he went to them and asked if they would buy the brooch in exchange for food. This they were only too pleased to do and after that Nobody spent his time hunting for pretty things which he sold to the elves and whenever anything was lying about he was always ready to pounce on it and carry it away.

"But what about the Queen, Grannie?" broke in Dora. "Was she not very sorry when she found that he had been sent away?"

"Yes," answered her grandmother, "She was really upset and begged the King to pardon him but this the King said he would only do on one condition. If Nobody came back and asked his forgiveness and behaved much better than he used to do he would let him stay. Otherwise he would have to go on living in The World Beyond and get along as well as he could."

"Have you quite made up your mind, my lord?" asked the Queen and when the King replied that he had she knew that it was no use saying any more.

This went on for some time. Nobody managed to get enough to eat and was happy enough in a way though he missed the Queen and all the fairies. Then one day he became ill and lay for some days in a hollow tree feeling very miserable, with only a little dew to drink and a few berries to eat, which grew near by. Then he began to think how badly he had behaved to the King and Queen and remembered how when he had been ill, the Queen had sat up with him all night and when he was feeling better the King had brought him some of his favourite marshmallow sweets.

"I will go back and say that I am sorry," he said to himself and as soon as he was feeling better he set off on the journey to Fairyland. The King had given orders that if Nobody entered the kingdom he was not to be stopped and before very long he

HUGE WEDDING CROWDS.

MILLION AND A HALF TRAVELLERS AT HOME.

A London wire of March 1 states:—Remarkable statistics provided by the Royal wedding ceremonies show that 1,500,000 people travelled on trains, by the Underground railways, and on motor omnibuses, beating the Coronation crowd record. They were all controlled by 18,600 London policemen.

The crowds were thickest in Parliament Square and Trafalgar Square. Three hundred women fainted at the former point and two hundred at the latter. One hundred cases of fainting were reported at other points along the route.

Practically no cases of pocket-picking or disorder were reported. The King's desire is that the public should be admitted to view the wedding presents of Princess Mary. They will be placed on view at St. James' Palace from March 9, daily where the public will be admitted on payment of a shilling each, the money to be devoted to charity.

Copies of the marriage register and licence will be shown in the Abbey for the same fee.

Large crowds are flocking to Sandringham, which is on fire, as the King is entertaining there 3,000, tenants, comprising nine villages in honour of the wedding. Concerts and dancing fetes are being held. Lavish gifts of sweets, crackers, and tobacco are being made.

Princess Mary and Viscount Lascelles will attend the service on the 5th instant at the old parish church in Weston village.

At a meeting of British women held in the Canton Club it was decided to hold a Bazaar and Garden Fete combined early in November with the object of raising funds to endow the bed in the Star and Garter Annex at Sandgate, which British women in Canton have supported by annual subscription since 1919. Mesdames Annett, Blanchett, Forbes, Kitching, Reynolds, Stratten and Tolliday were elected to serve on the Committee, and they have arranged to work throughout the summer towards a successful Fete in the Autumn.

arrived at the palace. The Queen rushed out to meet him and led him to the King and Nobody was soon forgiven and made happy again.

The Queen, in the meantime, had had a little son, so that there was no chance of Nobody becoming King and growing too proud and he was a different being after the lonely time that he had spent in The World Beyond.

"Is that all Grannie?" questioned Dora and when her grandmother said that it was she asked again, "Then who can have taken my thimble if the Rogue Nobody has gone back to Fairyland and does not take things any more?"

"Well of course people still talk as if he had done it," her grandmother told her, "But you will usually find that they have put a thing down in a place and have forgotten it, so that the Rogue Nobody is just himself. And if you look on the piano I think you will see what I mean."

Sure enough there was the thimble with some sewing on the top of the piano and Dora exclaimed "Now I remember! Yesterday when I was going to practise I put my thimble and my work on the piano and there they are still."

"Well now you see," added her grandmother, "How that poor Rogue Nobody gets blamed for things that he does not do at all!"

PETER PAN.

THE FAIRY QUEEN.

I'd like to see a fairy ball
But oh, what would be best of all I'd love to see the Queen.
Do you think she's ever seen?

My great big sister says that she Once found a fairy almond tree.
It sprang up in the night,
All green and pink and white.

She says a fairy took her hand
And said "We'll ride to Fairyland Upon an almond flower."
It took just half an hour.

She asked to see the Queen and then
They told her that she came at ten
But fairy time is queer.
They said to her "My dear

It's ten for us and not for you."
And oh—alas—it was too true,
She never saw the Queen.
Do you think she's ever seen?

PETER PAN.

What is the difference between a boy going upstairs and another boy looking upstairs?
One steps up the stairs and the other stays up the steps.
